San Antonio!
2007

SAN ANTONIO: where Texas hospitality meets the charm of Old Mexico. From the Alamo to the Riverwalk, you'll find plenty to do here! Join us for the 2007 Southern Region Leadership Conference! Experience the Difference with exciting programs designed to enhance your leadership, business and competition skills. Benefit from networking opportunities that will expand your circle of DECA friends, and enjoy special events in one of America's most unique locations.

- Leadership Development: Students will go beyond the basic duties and responsibilities of leadership and will learn how to exceed expectations.
- Business Partner Presentations: Representatives from a variety of professions will give participants an insider view on what it takes to be successful in the business world.
- Competitive Event Coaching: Tips and tricks from advisors with winning teams will give your competitive event teams the edge they need to bring the trophies home.
