

Professional Division

Over 6,000 educators are members of DECA's Professional Division. Professional Division members are associated with a specific high school or college chapter. DECA provides Professional Division members with classroom and curriculum resources designed to assist them in integrating DECA and Delta Epsilon Chi activities into their curriculum.

Professional Division programs are tailored to either the high school or college advisor.

For specific information on DECA's Professional Division programs please click here.

For College Division Advisors

For High School Division Advisors