SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

1. Explain the nature of effective communications.
2. Explain the concept of market and market identification.
3. Explain the use of marketing strategies in hospitality and tourism.
4. Explain the role of promotion as a marketing function.
5. Explain promotional methods used by the hospitality and tourism industry.

CASE STUDY SITUATION

You are project managers that work for the CAVE BEND SCHOOL DISTRICT, a district located in a city of 450,000 people that serves 38,000 students. The district provides many extracurricular and co-curricular activities for student participation, including local spelling bees that allow winners the opportunity to compete in the regional spelling bee. The winner of the regional spelling bee then goes on to compete in the national spelling bee in the nation's capital.

The CENTRAL REGION SPELLING BEE has been held in the same city for over twenty years. Winners from local spelling bees travel to that city for a weekend competition that determines who will be sent to the nation's capital. The host of the competition secures a corporate sponsor for the event that helps defray competition costs and travel costs for the winner. The host also secures the 100 adult volunteers needed to successfully run the CENTRAL REGION SPELLING BEE.

This year, the city has declined to host the event. The CENTRAL REGION SPELLING BEE will now be held in Cave Bend for the first time. CAVE BEND SCHOOL DISTRICT has been assigned to manage the event and your team has been chosen to be project leaders.

Cave Bend is over 100 miles from the previous host city, so your team is unable to use the same volunteers for the event. The corporate sponsor from the past year has also declined to maintain the sponsorship due to the change in location.

The CENTRAL REGION SPELLING BEE is now in need of 100 adult volunteers with various roles: 50 volunteers for Saturday and 50 volunteers on Sunday. Volunteers pass out programs, help run the competitors to the event hall, help with timing, provide the judges with their needs and other various activities.

The CENTRAL REGION SPELLING BEE is also in need of a corporate sponsor that can provide $10,000 for the event. The monies are used for the costs associated with running the event and the travel costs for the regional winner to attend the national event.

YOUR CHALLENGE

Your team must design a strategy for successfully obtaining the 100 adult volunteers needed for the CENTRAL REGION SPELLING BEE. In addition, your team must create a list of potential types of businesses and/or organizations to target for corporate sponsorship of the event.

Your strategies for obtaining volunteers and corporate sponsorship must include specific market segments, marketing strategies, effective communications and promotional methods.
