ZAC SPOHN

COLLEGIATE DECA PRESIDENT

Zac Spohn has been a DECA member for six years, dating back to his time in high school. He currently attends Minnesota State University-Moorhead where he studies marketing and political science. Zac expects to graduate in May 2022. His leadership experience in DECA is extensive. He has served in chapter leadership positions and association leadership positions alike. Most recently, he served as President of Minnesota Collegiate DECA while serving as his chapter's president as well. As an executive officer, Zac's goals are to connect members internationally, empower members to be the best versions of themselves and build engagement in our organization to an extent never seen before. In his free time, Zac owns and operates his own 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, serves in student government and enjoys watching his favorite professional Minnesota sports teams.
