SARAH CRAMER

COLLEGIATE DECA VICE PRESIDENT

Sarah Cramer is in her third year as an active Collegiate DECA member. This past year, she served as Full Sail University's student body president and is a current business owner for An Ocean Above Records. She recently graduated with her undergraduate degree in music business and is now pursuing her master's degree in digital marketing at Full Sail University. In her free time, Sarah enjoys snowboarding, traveling and finding the next generation of musical superstars around the globe. This year, she wants to lead Collegiate DECA to enhance the future workforce by creating better leadership, brand awareness and communication skills.
