

DOWNLOAD MY PHOTO

TYLER JEPPSEN

COLLEGIATE DECA VICE PRESIDENT

Tyler Jeppsen is a driven, five-year DECA member from Salt Lake City, Utah. Tyler began his DECA journey his sophomore year of high school and has become very passionate about DECA and everything the organization has to offer. Throughout his experience in high school DECA, he found a love for marketing. Currently, Tyler is perusing a bachelor's degree in Marketing from the University of Utah. Tyler has enjoyed DECA's Competitive Events Program by earning multiple competitive titles to his name. Throughout his time in DECA, he has served in association leadership and chapter leadership roles. Most importantly, Tyler is passionate about driving diversity and inclusion within the organization. In his free time, Tyler has facilitated business consulting for various local clients, including branding, marketing, and strategic planning. Tyler is enthusiastic about leadership and professional development and he can't wait to maximize his momentum!

CONTACT ME

✉ tyler@decaofficers.org

@ @ccdeca_tyler