

INTUIT
mint®

Curriculum Orientation

- > Checklist
- > Connecting to Mint

INTUIT

turbotax

credit karma

quickbooks

mailchimp

Complete the following:

Connect to Mint.

Follow the directions on the Connecting to Mint page.

Do not go to Mint.com. Use the link: minteducation.intuit.com/

Create an account.

This account you will create is for Mint Education use only.

Do not use a real email address.

Complete the "Intro to Mint" activity.

After gaining access to through the above steps, open and complete the Intro to Mint Activity.

This activity serves as an orientation to Mint and an introduction to the fictional persona Isaiah. It is recommended that you also do this activity before any other of the content-specific Mint activities.

Come back into Mint on a subsequent day.

Log out of Mint and re-access Mint.

In order to re-access Mint, you must use the same computer or device. If you use a new device, you'll have to create a new account each time.

These Mint activities and the fictional persona Isaiah simulate an authentic Mint experience as the account balances, budgets, and trends change daily. You will see new financial data automatically updated daily.

Connecting to Mint

The following steps on this page will connect you to Mint simulation.

1. Go to minteducation.intuit.com/ and sign up for free.

At the bottom of this sign-in screen, click the button to create a new account.

2. Create an account.

Make up an email address that ends in @intuiteducation.com.

This is critical to sign-in success. You must use @intuiteducation.com.

Ignore the prompt to enter a phone number.

Do not use a phone number or any other personal information.

Use the suggested password Mint1234!

Record the email and password you used.

Click to create an account.

3. Skip the verification page.

The email address you created for this simulation does not have an email account and does not need to be validated.

Click to continue.

Sign in

One account for everything Intuit. Learn more

Phone number, email or user ID

Standard call, message, or data rates may apply.

Remember me

By selecting Sign In, you agree to our Terms and have read and acknowledge our Global Privacy Statement.

Try something else

Create an Intuit account

One account for everything Intuit. Learn more

Email

Phone (recommended)

Verification

Thank you for creating an Intuit account. With this account, you have access to many Intuit online services, e.g. TurboTax, Mint, QuickBooks, Payroll services, etc.

A confirmation email has been sent to your email address. Please click the link in the email to confirm your account at your earliest convenience.

Connecting to Mint

4. Enter your zip code.

Mint will never ask for any personally identifiable information.

5. You're ready to begin!

Welcome to Mint Education!

Welcome!

Please let us know your school's zip code.

Country

School zip code

Intuit education

Hello and welcome!

This Mint simulation is designed to help you build financial literacy skills and develop healthy financial habits. Activities in this site are focused on three principles: saving, budgeting, and credit. They have been designed to allow you to work at your own pace or with a class.

Getting started with Mint

In these Mint activities, students will be learning about and getting to know Mint - a financial tool used by millions of people to manage their own finances

- Introduction to Mint
- Comparing savings accounts
- Evaluating credit card offers
- Analyzing a credit report & score